

The 2nd Sino-Nordic Women & Gender Studies Conference

Gender and Human Rights in China and the Nordic Countries

Place: Malmö University, Sweden

Date: 7-9 August 2005

The aim of the Gender and Human Rights in China and the Nordic Countries conference is to question the categories of gender and human rights. The conference will address the links between theories and practical political, legal and social struggles for gender justice and human rights from the perspectives of China and the Nordic countries.

This conference is the second in the series of Sino-Nordic Women & Gender Studies conferences. The aim of these conferences is to develop trans-national, cross-cultural and cross-disciplinary perspectives on women and gender studies in and across the Chinese and Nordic contexts based on both theoretical and policy-relevant research.

Keynote speakers
